Welcoming Jenny to the board

We're delighted to announce that Jenny Capp who joined us in 2015 has now been appointed as a director at Rhodes & Partners. Jenny's appointment reflects both the hard work she has contributed, and the fact that we continue to grow as a business.

Jenny brought considerable experience with her when she joined Rhodes & Partners, having previously been involved with both Newcastle University and the Building Research Establishment. Since then she has made a very important contribution to our work, and we're delighted to now welcome her as a member of our board of directors.

Jenny will replace Penny Ribbeck, who has been a main board director with Rhodes & Partners for 7 years. Penny will remain as a non-executive director and will continue to manage our financial affairs.
